VINCENZO GERACI FOUGHT HARD

Black Hand Leader Had Come to Office of Dr. Peter Cutrera to Obtain $3,000 Demanded on Pain of Death—Dummy Package of Money and the Police Were Waiting for Him.

Chicago, April 2.—Vincenzo Geraci, who is said by the police to be the leader of the Chicago Black Hand society, was arrested here today in the office of Dr. Peter Cuerra, from whom the Italian had demanded $3,000 on pain of $3,000, but he paid no attention to it. A second letter was received. Today the physician received a telephone message from a man who said he was one of those who had written the letters. "Unless you pay us the money you

Police Make Arrests.

Boston, April 2.—Apparently clearing the mystery which has surrounded the murder of Miss Annie Mullins, a New foundland girl, in Arlington on the night of March 27, 1928, the Gibraltar police today arrested two young men, one of whom, they say, has informed them that his companion committed the crime. The prisoners are Dionysius Spiropoulos, 20 years old, a Greek, who has been living in Manchester, N. H., since the murder, under the name of James Mantir, and Peter Delorey, a French Canadian, aged 18, of Somerville. The first named is charged with the murder and Delorey with being an accessory.

The police have information in their possession which indicates that the exchange of greetings, Mr. Roosevelt wearing a frock coat and a silk hat came down over the side and stepped into a launch sent out by the captain of the part and was brought ashore. The party proceeded at once to the residence of Mr. Sprague.

At the residence of Mr. Sprague Mr. Roosevelt was greeted by a gathering of the Americans in Gibraltar.

When Mr. Roosevelt was driven back to the pier it was crowded with people who gave him an enthusiastic farewell. The sailing of the Hamburg was delayed about 45 minutes. No official questioned some young men who were acquainted with the girl, among whom was Peter Downey, a motorman, who is now in Chicago. Persons who saw DeLoey tonight and had known Downey remarked the striking resemblance, and it is thought possible that in this fact lies the reason for Miss Mammie accompanying two men who were strangers to her on the night she was murdered.

She walked with them for a distance of three miles, according to Delorey. In his statement to the police Delorey said:

"We met Miss Mullins on the night of March 28 near the Porter street station of the Boston and Maine railroad. She spoke to us, apparently believing us to be acquaintances. We walked together to Squires field, Arlington, and returned to where we started.

The evening bog still early, we walked back again, entering Spirites field by way of Marathon street. Miss Mullins and Spiropoulos went into a sandpit, while I stood some distance away. I heard him strike the girl and heard a dull thud as she fell down, followed by several screams. There was much noise for some time after, but I was afraid to go near them. After a while Selconowus came to me with his hands smeared with blood and threatened me, saying that if I ever told any person of what had happened

Attitude of Sao Paulo Government Regarding So-Called Valorization Policy.

Washington, April 2.—The attitude of the Sao Paulo, Brazil, government regarding the so-called valorization policy and the management of the coffee stock belonging to that government, is set forth in a cablegram received today by the Brazilian ambas-

The message says that the government of Sao Paulo is no longer engaged in valorization operations and that any tax treated by the United States will generate more than the American government would receive. It also says that the government of Sao Paulo is not in a position to make any concession in the matter of the tax on foreign exchange, and that the government of Sao Paulo is not in a position to make any concession in the matter of the tax on foreign exchange, and that the government of Sao Paulo is not in a position to make any concession in the matter of the tax on foreign exchange.

The valorization attitude is important in view of recent charges that a syndicate is being formed as a result of expected action of congress on the coffee schedule of the tariff bill.
